Virtual Keynote Speaker: Dr. Marc Milstein

Topic: New Insights into Avoiding Burnout and Boosting Happiness

- Our keynote speaker, Dr. Marc Milstein, offered to share his slide presentation with attendees. Here is the LINK TO THE SLIDE PRESENTATION.
- You will have the option to receive a brain health tip via email, if you wish, or you may choose to opt-out.
- Virtual Keynote was less costly for ACTEM but always offers logistical concerns.
- Thank you to Pro AV for providing the equipment and technical expertise for the keynote.
- Keynote offered a non-techie topic but one that was appreciated and commented on by attendees.
- Keynote was not able to be recorded according to our contract but Dr. Milstein he did offer his slides to attendees. A link was sent out with the conference survey
- Comments:
  - Keynote was FANTASTIC! :)
  - Thank you for stepping outside the "tech box" and providing an excellent and "life changing" keynote topic today.

A few comments from our survey...

- Great to see everyone in person again! (many comments about this)
- I thought it was a great conference. Can't wait to attend your big conference in October
- I only have one comment. I couldn't get to see all of the workshops I wanted because they conflicted. But I know that's normal for any conference.
- It was a great day of learning.
- Would like to see more teacher/ integrator friendly (non sales) offerings.
- Wider selection of sessions - too many focused on vendors
- I love the ACTEM conference each time I go. Thank you again for an amazing day!
- I really enjoyed this conference, and being able to network and meet new people in similar positions.
